

Charity Workers Discuss Control of Milk Supply and Infant Welfare

One of the sessions of the State Conference of Charities and Correction held in Stamford last week was devoted to milk and its relation to infant welfare.

Dr. Dwight H. Lewis, city bacteriologist of New Haven, told of improvement in the milk supply of that city. Hon. Mr. A. Stadtmueller, state dairy commissioner, and Christopher Easton, director of public health education, of the Connecticut Research association, dealt with the economic side, and Miss Henrietta F. Thacher, president of the New Haven Infant Welfare association, made the application to infant welfare. From the standpoint of the milk consumer the most important statement made was that of the dairy and food commission, who maintained that only by uniform sanitary inspection of dairies throughout the state by state authorities could satisfactory results be obtained.

There was some dispute as to pasteurization, but it hark before being pasteurized is graded and labeled according to its degree of cleanliness, there ought to be no objection to a pasteurized milk, and does not diminish the nutritive value of the milk. There was general agreement on the proposition that a safe and clean milk for infant feeding can not be produced at prevailing prices.

Those who have not been watching the growth of the milk station do not realize how much of an institution it has become in our larger cities. In New York there are now 35 such stations under municipal auspices besides those under private auspices. From a mere distributing center for modified milk the up-to-date station has become a general center for promoting the health not only of infants but of whole neighborhoods of families. Results on the infant death rate have always been significant in those communities due to improper diet and care. A recent extension of the station work which consist in the prenatal instruction of expectant mothers, has now proved the possibility of still births and deaths soon after birth. This element has hitherto constituted 1-3 of infant mortality. With both the prenatal and post-natal education of infant mortality being vigorously attacked it looks as though we might almost look forward to wiping out infant mortality altogether, barring of course a small percentage of unavoidable accidents of pregnancy.

ELECTRO-PLATERS AND GUESTS HAVE BANQUET

About a score of the members, associate members and invited guests attended the second annual banquet of the Bridgeport branch, American Electro-Platers society at the Stratfield hotel, Saturday night. Harry D. Joannus was toastmaster. Among the speakers were: Lester N. Nottmangle of the International Silver Co., George B. Hognaboom, former president of the National society; Nelson A. Barnard, secretary of the Bridgeport branch; and Charles H. Poland, superintendent of the Jennings Brothers factory.

BRING VIDEETTE HERE FOR NAVAL RESERVES.

Commander Eben Hill of Norwalk and Lieut. Albert J. Merrill of this city have decided to bring the new videette, Videette to Bridgeport May 15. This is the new boat that the U. S. Navy department has placed in service for use of the Naval Reserves. The videette will anchor off the Naval Reserves training quarters at the foot of Seaview avenue. The boat is being overhauled at the Brooklyn navy yard. A new wireless telegraph apparatus will be placed on board here. The videette is 55 feet long and can make a speed of 21 knots. She will make the third in use for the Naval Militia here. A detail from the Third Division Reserves will go from Bridgeport to the Brooklyn navy yard on Saturday afternoon and sail the vessel to this city.

AUSTRIA HUNGARY SENDS ANOTHER ENVOY TO ITALY.

Rome, May 3.—Reliable information from Vienna, the Tribune says, is to the effect that Count Agener Goltchowski, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, is about to leave for Rome upon a special mission for his government. It is believed here this announcement promises a resumption of the central empire's efforts to prolong the negotiations with Italy.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD MAKES FINANCIAL REPORT.

Washington, May 3.—The Federal Reserve Board's total annual payroll, in force today, according to its announcement, is $187,100. This does not include the division of issue prepared as a part of the office of the comptroller of the currency.

SAYS JACKIE'S WHITE UNIFORMS ARE TARGETS.

Washington, May 3.—Surgeon J. C. Pryor, of the navy, who is already on record as favoring the banishment of navy uniforms, has now submitted a report recommending that the wearing of white clothing by naval forces be abandoned.

While admitting that white clothing has some advantages, Surgeon Pryor thinks it affords the enemy a target easily distinguishable and in addition is impracticable because so easily soiled. At Vera Cruz, last year, he says, the American naval forces, in many cases colored the white uniforms with the improvised dyes, coffee and even mud. Surgeon Pryor believes khaki, olive drab or dark colored material would make more practical uniforms.

Operation of the new $2,000,000 plant of the Central Steel Co. of Columbia Heights, Ohio, will be begun today.

May 1 was observed throughout Hungary as "Abstain-from-Smoking" day. The money thus saved was given to a fund for invalid soldiers.
